Channeling My Buddy Jack

Jack: Me to Jack, "One of the good things about the Wuhan flu was it appears my personal gas doesn't smell anymore." Jack to me, "Dad, didn't you tell me the only bad thing about the Wuhan flu was you had lost most of you sense of smell?"

Jack: "Dad, do you know who were the first people that didn't take the time to read the Apple terms and conditions?" In my sleep I admitted I didn't know, to which Jack replied, "Dad, according to our information up here in Dog Heaven it was Adam and Eve."

Jack: "Up here in Dog Heaven we were saying, the other day, that if a neighbor's cow jumps the fence into your pasture, and gives birth to a calf, the calf and cow are NOT your property." In my sleep I laughed and said, "Of course not Jack, that only applies if you follow the current United States Immigration 'birthright citizenship' policy."

Jack: "Dad, up here in Dog heaven we see that on Earth people are paying up to $300 for a colon cleanse." In my sleep I laughed and said, "Apparently they have not heard of that $4.99 Taco Bell deal."

Crapper Funny Shorts:

Wagu Beef and Expensive Wines: Both are wasted on me for the simple reason that my palate is not nearly as sensitive as my billfold.

Gathering vs Reunion: So.... does calling a get together, or a reunion a 'gathering' assure the hosting party that if someone who does not get invited (either by choice or by accident) WILL NOT be offended? Let me know how that works out for you. Me, I think 'gathering' is just more useless WOKE language logic that purports to 'solve' something by renaming it but in fact accomplishes exactly nothing. If someone gets left out either by accident or by intent, there is a good chance they will be offended. Deal with it.

Big Difference Between Men and Women: When a woman says "smell this," there is a good chance that it WILL actually smell good.

Folgers v/s Old Age: Folgers Coffee had it wrong all those years ago when they said "The best part of waking up is Folgers in your cup." These days I think the best part of waking up (in the middle of the night) is getting right back to sleep after you finish taking a pee.

JUST SAYING!

It seems that, in our retirement, Linda and I are simply not seeing old friends enough. Not only are we are busy every single day, but we are in Arizona quite a bit of the year. And now that I'm out of the business world it seems we just don't see everyone like we used to.

That is one reason I have been writing Crapper Chronicles for these past few years. It is a way for us to stay in touch with old friends and gives me an excuse to keep writing. I hope you enjoy it, but since some of the times I get toooooo opinionated, be sure and let me know if you want off the "Crapper" list.

By the same token, if you want to add someone to the list, just shoot me an email and I'll get it done. Richard Farnham of Farnham Associates on the Big Island of Hawaii does my layout work and makes sure my email list is kept secure.

Bill Gates Medical Advice: It is reported that multi-billionaire Bill Gates is in favor of population control. It is also widely reported that he is a big proponent of the Wuhan flu shots. I tend to think this guy would be the last person I would listen to for medical advice.

Dixie Paper Plates: Apparently good old Dixie brand paper plates are compostable everywhere 'except in California' because, believe it or not, Dixie actually has this disclaimer posted right on their plates. First question: have you ever met anyone who is in fact doing 'composting'? Secondly, are you telling me this plate will compost everywhere else in the United States except California? Thirdly, don't you have to ask yourself what unelected bureaucrat idiot determined that Dixie paper plates are compostable everywhere else in the world EXCEPT the Peoples Republic of California.

Question for Voters in California: If you are governed by a group of politicians who banned plastic drinking straws because of the flawed information gleaned from a student's school science project, but this same group of politicians advocates and promotes giving away syringes to addicts to 'promote safer drug injections'; you are being governed by idiots.

French People and Fast Food: It is reported that the reason the French are so fond of snails is they simply don't like "fast food."

Best Birthday Card Ever: This year on my birthday, Linda handed me a card with my morning toast and coffee. The card said something to the effect that "My husband may have a few faults but I still consider him a 'good catch.' True or not, thanks for making my day, Hug Bunny!"

Too Many Options: A friend of mine got a new car and he was telling me about it. He said "This new car has many amazing features and one even is labeled "rear wiper." He said he was somewhat afraid to try that one yet.

Great News: Finally, many school districts are banning cell phones during the school day. It is about time. Little Johnny will simply have to wait till after school to post how many times his buddy Benny picked his nose today.

Crapper Serious Shorts:

Great Movie: Miracles from Heaven, a show on Netflix, tells the story of the Beam family in Texas who had one of their young children come down with a non-curable fatal illness. Unbelievable story and a must watch.

Good Read: First 30 Seconds. This book by Ed Monk is a quick read and deals with the uncomfortable issue of mass shootings in our colleges and schools. The basic premise of the book is the time it currently takes for law enforcement to neutralize one of these active shooter nut cases. Monk is an expert on this subject and to form and educated opinion on this subject, reading this book is an absolute must.

Loss of Another Friend: Much to my dismay we have learned that Meiling Soap has ceased operations. Meiling Soap was a boutique soap product manufactured in California. I am down to my last two bars and hate to see this excellent product go away.

Paid Protesters: As citizens of this great country, we have to be aware that the vast majority of the violent protesters you see on mainstream media are not 'concerned citizens.' They are PAID protestors hired by rich leftist organizations promoting America killing ideas. Here are just a few examples of what these paid protesters are in favor of: 'It is bad to deport criminal illegals,' 'Health care should be paid for by hard working American citizens, but should be given free to anyone who shows up in the United States,' 'Men should be allowed in women's locker rooms and should be able to compete in women's sports,' 'The state of Isreal and all Jewish people should be wiped from the face of the earth,' 'We need to breed and turn wolves and other predators loose so they can restore 'balance' to nature, even though when these wolves decimate ranchers herds, it is illegal for ranchers to eliminate these wolves.' And finally, we simply cannot leave out the ever popular; 'Man is killing the planet by causing climate change.' So, before we hand our wonderful country over to the idiots who promote this total bullshit; Think, talk about it to your kids and friends and above all, VOTE. People, remember, at least for now, you are reading this with a full stomach, you can go to the store and buy as much food as you want, when you switch on your electricity it always works, you can buy gas for your vehicle and drive it anywhere anytime you want to. You can, by and large, walk the streets of your town without fear, and in most cases you can go to any doctor or hospital you desire. One more time; Think about it, talk about it to your family and friends, and before it's too late, VOTE!!!

Electric Cars: I could care less if you own and drive one, any more than I care if you believe in the bullshit premise of 'man caused' climate change killing the planet. What does bother me is both the manufacturer and the person driving the vehicle are getting tax breaks for 'saving the planet.' People, the taxes always get paid. These bullshit 'save the planet' tax breaks are not 'gifts,' they are simply taxes transferred to 'less enlightened' people: You know, folks such as myself and the vast majority of the population possessed of simple common sense.

Note to Russia, China, North Korea and Iran: In the past few decades we have certainly tried to be buddies with you. The idea was maybe our purchasing your products would help you 'join the world family,' so to speak. Even though we instinctively knew that trading with countries who were trying to undermine our way of life, was NOT a good idea, we tried it anyway. We had used this strategy in both post war Japan and South Korea and it did work, but then again, they were not Communist/Socialist countries. None the less, we tried this open trade idea with the Communist/Socialist block, but sadly all opening up trade with them did was make more money available for them to attack us. Luckily, it takes money to go to war. At last, with this administration, for the most part we are not attacking these belligerents with bullets and bombs. Finally, it appears that instead of throwing more American treasure and bodies at the problem, we are simply saying the United States and hopefully, the rest of the free world are going to see the value in stopping buying from them. In time, this will shut off the money funding their damn war machines.

You Are Kidding, Right? So, you are telling me that 'due process' in the immigration case of Albrego Garcia, an illegal criminal in our country, a person with proven ties to deadly gangs, a person who has been twice turned in by his wife for spousal abuse, a person who has been associated with human trafficking; is a more important issue for our politicians to deal with, than the 1,000,000 deaths caused over the past 10 years from drugs such as coke and fentanyl; perpetrated and promoted by the very gangs and cartels this piece of human garbage is associated with?

Isn't It Odd? The Arab/Muslim countries are taking in nearly ZERO Muslim refugees, immigrants, etc. Funny how these Arab countries, that are awash in money from their oil sales to the rest of the world, don't want to help or absorb their own people, but instead send them to the United States and European countries. Odd as well, is that after these refugees arrive in largely non-Muslim countries, instead of becoming part of these nations and accepting their laws and customs, they immediately get busy trying to convince these countries to adapt and use the same Muslim laws and customs of countries that would not accept them as refugees?

Don't Believe Me? At a recent conference, Peddada Peoples Conference for Palestine event, attended and supported by United States congresswoman and rabid anti-semitic, Rashida Tlaib, D Michigan; two of the speakers were former Hamas terrorist prisoners who had been released in the hostage exchange. The gist of the rhetoric at this conference was 'America needs to be destroyed as we know it and rebuilt in a manner that suits Muslim culture.' In the case of Hamas, completely obliterating Isreal is of course at the top of the things that needs to be accomplished. Funny isn't it, if these Arab/Muslims want to change things, why don't they clean up their own countries? Ours has been working fantastically for 250 years. The good news is that the current administration and basically all THINKING Americans, are not interested in turning our country into a third world pile of camel dung to please these idiots.

James Comey: During his testimony to congress he used the phrases "I don't know," "I don't remember," "I don't recall," 236 times. Amazingly, he was able to remember enough to write an entire book.

Quick Conversation Ender: When someone says, 'You look so familiar,' a good reply is 'Were we in prison together?' That is usually a quick conversation ender.

Quick Relationship Ender: If someone annoys you simply lend them some money. That way you will most likely never hear from them again

Want To Lower Crime? Just change the stats. DC officials were saying crime was down over 34%, yet on scrutiny serious crimes were actually up. The difference was how individual crimes were being classified and reported. One police dept employee is being investigated and has been 'put on leave' for manipulating crime numbers.

This and That:

The True Value of Current Administration: All bullshit aside; our current administration's real value is in getting rid of endless duplication, replacing worn out and outdated equipment, promoting commonization of procedures, eliminating fraud and abuse, and getting back to results oriented merit based, staffing of civil service, business in all forms, and our military. In addition, they and most thinking people agree we need immigrants. Maybe with this administration pushing them, our politicians will deal with the important need to update, modernize and speed up our immigration laws and procedures. While congress is at it, maybe they will finally end politicalization of judgeships to eliminate 'lawfare'. And with enough pressure from this administration, it is hoped they will unshackle business, farmers and ranchers from endless government regulation put in place by NON-Elected Bureaucrats. But above all, maybe now the congress will get off their asses and actually codify these things so if the socialist/communist faction once again gains control they cannot undue all these necessary changes.

Cataracts, Frogs and Unelected Bureaucrats: They say due to the fact the frog is a cold-blooded creature if you put one in water and gradually bring the water to a lethal temperature the animal will die never realizing the mortal danger. Cataracts as well quietly sneak up on us diminishing our sight, gradually making it seem darker than it actually is, and making it more difficult to see details. Due to the quiet onset of cataracts, the unsuspecting senior, like the frog in the hot water, can become a poor and even dangerous driver, more and more putting themselves and others at risk. Another quiet and terrible threat which is softly enveloping our country is the danger of unelected, politically driven and purchased Government bureaucrats literally setting national policy on various issues.

In the case of judiciary, no matter if they were appointed judiciary or were elected with the help of unlimited socialist/world order money; judges that do everything possible to prevent the deportation or incarceration of Illegal immigrant non-American criminals associated with designated terrorist organizations should not be Judges. Criminal non-citizens of this country are not entitled to and should not get the same 'due process' as an American citizen.

An even more serious problem in America is unelected government workers, who wield massive power to slant the interpretation of regulations to their political purposes. These unelected government official's actions can not only block and delay needed projects, they hinder programs that actually are needed. In addition, these same officials can impose draconian and unnecessary procedures and regulations as is the case with the raising and turning lose, of wolves in ranch country. The actions of these largely unelected bureaucrats intimidate and destroy private business, farmers, ranchers, manufacturers and even ordinary people who dare defy them. If not reigned in, these unelected bureaucrats can not only strangle businesses, their naive and misguided actions on wildlife predator control threaten our nations food supply as well. The good news is we can fix cataracts and we should be smart enough to vote in politicians who will work to remedy these problems. The poor frog didn't know the hot water would kill him. We are in every bit as much danger. However, we should know better.

Old House

The old house stood stark against the sky
As Linda and I were driving by.
Old and weathered against the trees
And yet still beautiful, it seemed to me.

And out of the day the voices came,
Quietly seeping into my brain,
To give me answers for the lonely scene,
To change the outlook to happy from mean.

"We came to the plains in the flower of youth."
"Our God and our strength, our only truths."
"We worked our land from dawn till dark."
"Our house was built and became our ark."

"The now-gray boards were straight and strong,
Painted white and filled with song."
"It housed our children and watched them
go:
New York, Minneapolis, Des Moines,
Fargo."

"The house, the children, and the trees live
on,
While we, the pioneers, are gone."
"But while our bodies now turn to dust
As even the strong old house soon must,

"Our souls yet feel as in our youth;
Our God and our strength remain our truth."
"We constantly work from day to day;
We may be near or far away."

"And as your life you live and your problems
solve,
When once in a while you need more
resolve,
When the load you have taken seems far too
much,
We'll be there to help you; we'll still be in touch."

"We can provide help if only you'll ask."
"And what's better yet, you'll accomplish the task."
"We're Angels, we're dreams, we're your best intuition."
"And the success of your life is our only mission."

"Till maybe one day, when your life is through,
If your trials, intentions, and endeavors
were true,
We can welcome you into our special
fraternity
To build and dream and help for eternity."

Range Magazine; a Must Read: One way or the other, we are all in the FOOD BUSINESS. When it comes to food, we Americans are incredibly naive. The reason is that as a nation we have never faced starvation or lack of food on a large scale. You want to see a country devolve into chaos and anarchy? Shut off or let the government get total control of the food supply. The undeniable fact is whether or not you are a farmer, rancher, business owner, white collar or blue-collar worker; you (we) are all in the FOOD BUSINESS. If you want to continue to see a steady and unlimited supply of readily available food; if you want to be ACURATELY informed on the environmental issues of today that threaten your food supply; if you want this information without the slanted, and in many cases, dead-wrong information being pushed by the media; you need to subscribe to Range Magazine. A three-year subscription is only about $50. I look forward to every issue and read it cover to cover. Their phone number is 1 800 726 4348, their address is Range, P.O. Box 639, Carson City, NV 89702 or you can order at www.rangemagazine.com. The farmers, ranchers, small meat packers, and local businesses of our great country need the general population to be better informed and supportive of unshackling these most important of industries. How serious am I about trying to get you to act on this? If you can't afford the few dollars it costs to be ACURATELY informed, give me a call and I'll buy you a damn subscription myself!

Editorial Message to Young Crapper Readers: Your Vote Can Defeat the Socialism Mirage:

I know in Crapper that I have probably beat this drum waaaay too much, but since many readers of Crapper are actually young folks, I was thinking to possibly give them some quick talking points to help them combat the endless propaganda promoting the failed political ideology of Socialism/Communism and get across to them the importance of their VOTING. Recent events have revealed that in recent years, largely unbeknownst to us, many of our children and their children had been exposed to the boldfaced lie of how in the perfect world of socialism all folks would live and work in perfect harmony. No one would 'have more' than the next person, or in other words, be 'richer' or have 'more stuff' or think of themselves as 'better', or have a 'nicer house' or a 'better' car: Unfortunately, the last 100 years have witnessed this pipe dream of a failed political ideology kill and enslave hundreds of millions of people. Here are just a few simple reasons why the myth of 'Equality' in Socialism cannot work:

1. All people don't work at the same pace
2. All people don't have the same work ethic
3. All people don't have the same mental capacity
4. All people don't have the same amount of drive to succeed and excel
5. All people don't have the same needs
6. All people don't have the same goals and expectations
7. All people don't have the same egos
8. All people DO HAVE HUMAN NATURE

The Socialists always insinuate that the 'rich people' got their position in life because of fraud against the 'poor'. As the vast number of people who have had success in life know, this is total bullshit. What the 'based on envy' lie of Socialism fails to say is that by and large successful people have worked unbelievable hours, and they have had to risk borrowing huge sums of money to finance their various ventures. Additionally, invariably after they do achieve success, they have not only improved the lot of millions of people, they have given a tremendous amount of money back to society in grants to charity, while providing jobs for millions of people.

Folks, the above are just a few reasons that Socialism is a failed political ideology. In spite of what they have been told, the younger generation must realize that life is not fair, and no, you don't get a trophy just because you graced us with your presence. If you are not happy with your condition in life, by and large you are the only one who can change it. No matter how much you wish it otherwise, with rare exceptions, your situation in life is not the fault of some evil 'rich person'. Eventually you will find that the harder you work at becoming better at your chosen life's work; the happier and luckier you will get. Like it or not, the great guarantor of advancement in life is achieved by doing your best and becoming more and more proficient at what you are working at. By and large the world could care less about your ethnicity, your sexual orientation, your gender, the bone in your nose, your tattoos, or your stupid pronouns. Let's get real for a moment: As a passenger, who in hell do you want flying the airplane? A damn good pilot, or someone who got the job because they were...disadvantaged, a minority, had a bad upbringing, or felt they were 'born in the wrong body'. Me? I'll take the good pilot: I could give a shit less who their mommy and daddy were or 'whose bed their boots have been under'.

Linda and I believe in the power of prayer. Please take a moment to send one off for someone you think could use a good word. As usual, thanks for reading Crapper and remember, we have our families, our friends, our health, and time; the rest is smoke and mirrors!
